I greatly appreciated being able to edit the sheets for each individual child. Some students struggled with writing their names, so this resource was much needed to encourage them to practice and enjoy it.

- Cheryl R.

I like that this bundle offers so many different options for name and letter practice. I was able to easily find pages for all children in my classroom to meet their current level of name writing readiness.

- Michelle H.

Love, love, love this pack. The children in my class actively search for their name as well as their classmates. They are excited to see what each new week/theme brings, and they catch on to the songs quickly and repeat them on their own during play time. Fantastic purchase! - Tammy R.

Have fun playing and learning with your students!
