Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary

Nursery Rhyme

Day 1 lesson plans

This is a traditional rhyming poem or song. Teaching nursery rhymes to children to develop auditory skills and helps with speech development.

Students will develop listening and speaking skills by reciting a poem.

Activities:

1. Read the poem to the students and invite the children to join you in reading it again.
2. Have students take turns reciting the poem replacing "Mary" with their own name. The students replace "contrary" with a word describing themselves and replace "silver bells", "cockleshells", and "pretty maids" with something they would like to grow in a garden.

Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary

How does your garden grow?
With silver bells and cockleshells
And pretty maids all in a row.

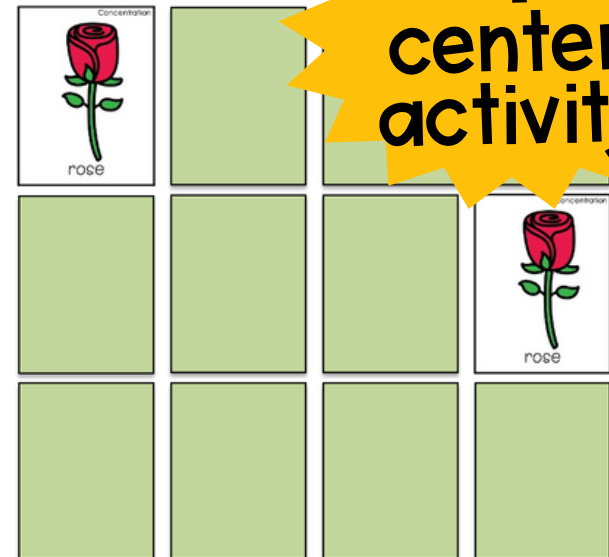

Janet, Janet,

Quite contrary. How does your garden grow?
With tomatoes and corn and peppers all in a row!
