

Classroom Tested

This is an awesome pack of printable props for adding grocery store play to your dramatic or pretend play center. My kiddos love the way they get to play, and I like the fact that literacy, math and writing skills are interwoven through the whole theme.

This is great also to use as the students knowing the different kinds of fruit, vegetables, canned goods and cold items.

I LOVE the book that is at the end. What a GREAT way to introduce the Grocery Store!!!!

Betsy Goes to the

Grocery Store

The first thing on Betsy's list is apples. She finds some delicious apples in the produce section.

Student Approved

My littles LOVED this dramatic play! I love all of the labels, the details you put into the materials you provided and suggested, and the options to sort things by item or by category.

GREAT resource!
