Betsy
has a

Tea Party

©Play to Learn Preschool

It was a beautiful day, and Betsy had not seen her cousin, Buzzy, in a while.

She decided to invite him to Grandma's house for Tea!

Betsy sent her cousin an invitation and got to work getting ready for the party.

Betsy went to the bakery to buy some sweets for her tea party. The baker had many yummy choices. Betsy picked some beautiful pink cakes and then went home to set up.

Betsy set the table with her pretty teapot, cups, saucers, and treats.
She then went to dress up before Buzzy came over.

Betsy decided which fancy hat to wear to the tea party.
She chose the pink hat with a fancy ribbon.

Buzzy was so excited to be invited over to Betsy's tea party. He chose his light pink tie and then went over to Grandma's house to meet Betsy for tea.

The cousins were so excited to see each other.

Betsy poured Buzzy some tea. Then Buzzy asked, "May I please have a tea cake?" Betsy answered, "Yes, you may!" Buzzy said, "Thank you!"

Betsy and Buzzy had such a good time together. Buzzy was ready to leave, so Betsy made sure to send him home with a box of extra tea treats
